

JOIN OUR PORTLAND PARENT GROUP!

Starting Strong Parents is a diverse and welcoming group of people who are caring for infants, toddlers and young children in the Portland area. We support each other and our community to be the best it can be for all children and their families.

- Discover opportunities for your child's care and early childhood education
- Learn how you can be a champion for greater equity, affordability and quality in child care
- Get support and info from other parents and caregivers

Virtual meetings via Zoom every other Thursday at 7pm. This month it is held on October 7 and October 21.
